Playing schedule: 2 days, 8 hanchans (4+4) of 90 minutes

Location: GO7 club apartment which can hold maximum of 48 players. The place has a kitchen, 2 toilets and 2 separate smaller rooms for players to hang out after their finished their games.

Equipment: Junkmats and quality mahjong sets on each table, sticks including green ones for 500p, red sticks for players in debt.

Refereeing: Peter Hamilton was non-player referee.

Complaints: None.

Information / communication during the tournament:

Visible clock projected from a computer on a screen. Referee or tournament staff informing players of gong. Ranking up to date between each session projected onto screen.

Sessions: High level of gameplay with inclusion of many top ranked European players. Problems with manners and attitude of few players. Few cases of too fast tenpai declarations before living-wall ended, due to not separating living from dead wall resulting in punishments.

Catering: Asian buffet on Saturday, traditional Austrian food on Sunday. Saturday after-party at pancakes place. Snacks, coffee and tea available for no charge

Prizes: Trophies and bags of sweets for individual ranking (1st, 2nd and 3rd) and snacks for few players who scored the most in one hanchan.

Conclusion: As always excellent quality tournament in Vienna with lots of very experienced players from top places in Europe. I would like that players could separate dead from living wall when it is close to end to avoid further punishments.
